Caughnawaga Winner of the September Stakes-Hark Forward Captures the Oakwood Cup Handleap for Artleulate-Drake's Conundrum in Front.

Soven races were run at Sheepshead Bay yesterday and as three favorites and two second choices were victorious the form players were fairly well repaid. August Belmont's Fire Eater proved a big surprise in the Autumn Stakes for two-year-olds at six furlongs down the Futurity course. The layers quoted 20 to 1 against him, which was quickly reduced one-half, however, by liberal play. Shorthose ruled favorite at s to 5. Payne made the running to the last Furlong pole, where he stopped. Then Merry Acrobat seemed to be the winner as he reached the final sixteenth, but Bullman subjected Mr. Belmont's colt to a severe ride and the latter, coming up on the outside, won by three parts of a length in the good time of

The field for the September Stakes for three-year-olds at a mile and three furiongs was reduced to three starters. Oom Paul was a hot favorite at 15 to 20, while Caughna-waga recoded to twos as a plunge on Dixieline reduced the latter from tens to sixes. Caughnawaga came home a winner by a length and a half in 2.22.

The third stake event to be decided was the Oakwood Cup, a steeplechase handicap for gentlemen riders at about two and a half miles. There were only three starters in this event, too. F. Ambrose Clark's Rowdy was a 3 to 5 favorite, and was ridden by his owner, who narrowly escaped two severe falls. Rowdy and Hark Forward rushed up together for the last jump. As Rowdy sprung over the obstacle he stumbled and Mr. Clark came within an acc of being thrown over his head. This mishap allowed Hark Forward to run away on the flat to a comparatively easy victory by six lengths in the slow time of 5:19 2-5.

The bandiagn at a mile and was a 2 to 5 favorite, and was ridden by his

Forward to run away on the internal actions paratively easy victory by six lengths in the slow time of 5:18 2-5.

The handicap at a mile and a quarter on turf was won in a gailop by the Western colt. Articulate, who gave away chunks of weight and was an odds-on favorite. The time was 2:03 4-5, three-fifths of a second behind star Bright's track record.

There were two events for maiden two-sar-olds at five furlongs, in which the riders were apprentuces. The first went to S. S. Brown's Ipse Dixit. 8 to 1, in 1:02 3-5. The other was captured by J. H. Carr's Courtmaid, the favorite.

John A. Drake's Conundrum, another favorite won the only selling race of the day. The distance was a mile and the time was 1:41 2-5. Dr. Barlow burned up a lot of money by propping lamself at the post.

SCEPTRE WINS ST. LEGER. Rising Glass Second and Friar Tuck Third in Race at Doncaster.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN LONDON, Sept. 10 -The race for the St Leger Stakes of 25 sovereigns each, for three year-old colts and fillies, was run at Doncaster to-day, and was won by R. S. Sievler's caster to-day, and was won by R. S. Sievier's filly. Sceptre. Col. H. McCalmont's Rising Glass was second and the Duke of Portland's Friar Tuck third. Twelve horses ran. The betting was 160 to 30 against Sceptre, u to 1 against Rising Glass, and 7 to 1 against Friar Juck.

St. Brendan led for a quarter of a mile. Then Caro went to the front and led to the Hed House, where Friar Tuck and Rising Glass passed him. Entering the stretch Rising Glass passed him. Entering the stretch Rising Glass led, but gave way to Sceptre, which won easily by three lengths. Sing was ridden by Jockey Hardy.

Sceptre is the filly for which her owner is said to have refused $200,000. She ran second for the Lincolnshire Handicap and then won the Two Thousand Guineas in record time. She was favorite for the Derby, but was unplaced, finishing fourth. She won the Oaks, but was not placed in the Grand Prix. She was also defeated in the Coronat. In Stakes the last win previous to yesterday was the Nassau Stakes.

IN BEHALF OF M'CHESNEY. Proposed Match Race for a Mile to a Mile and a Quarter, Weight for Age.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10. - McChesney against any horse in America, for a side bet of from $5,000 to $25,000, weight for age, distance mile to a mile and a quarter, the race to be decided at the Harlem fall meeting. This sweeping challenge has been issued by Durnell & Herz. owners of the noted three-year-old. Secre-tary Nathanson states that the club would add a suitable amount of money for such an event, with a vew to drawing several horses into the contest and possibly arrange a sweep-

It is not probable that any Eastern three-year-olds, barring possibly Green B. Morris's Sombrero, now running at Buffalo, would be entered in such a race. Most of the three-year-olds here have valuable stake engagements which would prevent them from soing West. The past experiences of Eastern horses in the West would probably carry some weight in the deliberation of owners who might for the moment look upon the proposition with favor. Trainers here do not believe that the long railroad ride in box cars, coupled with the change in climate and water, can be overcome by a horse, no matter how fine his condition may be when he is shipped.

At Chi ago. CRICAGO, Sept. 10.—The card offered at Harlem was only ordinary, but it drew a good sized crowd and furnished some very interesting sport. The only event of any class pretention was the sixturious handleap, fourth on the programme. Toah was heavily played, his olds being forced from 2 to 1 down to 7 to 5 at post time. The race proved to be a mere exercise pallop for Toah.

The yearling sales came to an end in the Pasig-Tipton Co's paddocks yesterday, when those from E. S. Carr's Trade Wind Stud, A. D. Bayne's Annita Stud, and several Stud. A. D. Bayne's Annita Stud and several other owners, were sold. The bidding was very light and fair prices were received. John J. McCafferty, who recently soid out all his horses and yearlings, made several purchases and gave the top price of $1.000 for the handsome filly by Gotham—Frederica. The firm of W. H. May & Son gave $950 for the imp. Top Gallant—then Hop colt. Ho was one of the biggest yearlings seen in the ring in years and looked more like a three-year-old.

BIG KILLING BY DAVE JOHNSON

WINNINGS ON FIRE EATER ESTI-MATED AT $50,000 OR MORE.

Drake Cashes Large Bets on Conundrum and Articulate-W. C. Whitney's Blue Girl and Morningside Go to the Stud Savable Retires for the Season.

Discouraged by reverses, David Johnson, from betting operations on the turf only to come back with the same old big commissions that have made him noted in the sporting world. Since the opening of the Sheepshead Bay meeting Johnson has not met with much success and a new announcement of his retirement has been daily looked for. But yesterday Johnson got in a killing that sent the layers home filled with whole-some respect for him. When August Belmont's Fire Eater opened at 20 to 1 in the betting on the Autumn Stakes Johnson hurried into the ring and began a tour in which he slapped on $100 at a crack with nearly every layer who was in line. The price fell rapidly to 10 to 1, and while the two-year-olds were at the post Johnson was still trying to get his money on at 8 to 1 Lucien Appleby also had the tip and played the colt heavily. When Fire Eater won nobody could tell just how much Johnson cashed in, but one of the biggest bookmakers who alone paid him $2,000, estimated that the plunger had taken $50,000, at the lowest. out of the ring. It is safe to say, therefore, that Johnson's notice of retirement will not be forthcoming for some time yet. not be forthcoming for some time yet.

John A. Drake won enough money on Conundrum and Articulate to buy half a dozen new automobiles. He backed Conundrum for $5,000 at 2 to 1 and placed $10,000 on Articulate to win $9,000. "Pittsburg Phil" if G Whittier had beaten Conundrum, who won by a head, would have won an enormous amount of money, as he backed L. V. Beil's colt all over the ring at 5 to 1, and across the board, for that matter.
W. C. Whitney's famous fillies, Blue Girl and Morning-ide, are to be retired to the stud at La Belle. They were shipped to Lexington, Ky., yesterday along with Imp and Lady Schorr, owned by J. E. Madden, who will go to the latter's breeding establishment at Hamburg Place. Blue Girl last year was one of the best two-year-olds in training. She was a rich stake winner, but suffered during the winter from the attack of influenza that infected Mr. Whitney's stable The Imperial, by Merino (Smith).

Time -2.29 2. at Westbury. Blue Girl is a full sister to Blues, being sired by Sir Dixon out of Bonnie Blue II. Morningside also has been a good winner, but this year, like Blue Girl, she has been a disappointment. She is a four-year-old mare by Meddler-Sunnyside. ment flater from the flater of John A. Drake's Savable, winner of the Futurity, will not race again this year. Trainer Enoch Wishard arrived at this con-and Killoshandra Frank Farrell's Blues was the winner a year ago. The best time for the race is 2:21, made in 1895 by Nanki Pooh.

Albert Simons continued his warfare against Drake's horses yesterday, when Conundrum won the second event. The gelding was entered to be sold for $1,500, and Simons, with $100 bids, ran him up to $2,300, at which figure Drake's trainer bid the usual $5 and tetained the son of Charade. In this race H. M. Ziegler, owner of Bar Le Duc, and L. V. Bell, owner of G. Whittier, put in claims for each other's colts, apparently as a matter of self-protection. Strange to relate, although May J. ran in this event her owner, W. T. McGrath, was not heard from.

Having set Tommy Burns down on Tuesday for the remainder of the meeting. Starter Pettingill followed it up yesterday with a similar penalty inflicted on Jockey Bullman who persisted in running at the barrier with Fire Eater in the third ace. Mr. Pettingill is determined to enforce discipline, no matter who the offender may be. He has been distributing penalties lately with a lavish hand and his action will undoubtedly bear fruit. At Saratoga he was inclined to be lenient and several jockeys took advantage of it in a flagrant manner; but they have been made to understand that there can be no trifting in future.

Matt Alien, trainer for F. C. McLewee & Co cut loose a good thing in the two-year-old colt, Faulconbridge, by The Bard—Roulette, who ran third in the first gace. The colt was backed down to 40 to 1 from 100 and a neat sum was taken out of the show books. The race bristed with good things, by the way, Gellant Smith, Wyeleld, Illyria and Medal all being backed down from big odds. Murphy who rode Gallant Smith went before the stewards with a protest of foul which was book alowed.

Sixteen horses were scratched yesterday. Dixeine was an added starter in the September Stakes, while in the Oakwood cup W. C. Hayes who started both Cock Robin and Hark Forward to victory, his short in milding the two-year-old colt Skilful purchased by him at

HOLLOW VICTORY FOR RYTHMIC Green Trotter Takes Record of 2:11 1-4 in Syracuse Wagon Race.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 10.—Well-contested races with several close finishes marked the Grand Circuit races at the New York State Fair to-day. The making of a record of 2:11's by Frances B., owned by Ernest I. White, a brother of State Senator Horace White, was the cause of much comment among the horsemen. Frances B up to to-day was a green trotter, and Mr. White had intended to campaign her next year all along the Grand Circuit, starting with the M. and M. Brooklyns Shut Out the Cincinnatis and the Champions Win From Philadelphias -- Bostons Lose First Contest to St. Louis and Second Is a Tie.

There were lots of baseball yesterday, fourteen games being played in the two major leagues. In the National the New Yorks and Chicagos played a double-header. the locals losing the first and whitewashing their opponents in the second. The Brooklyns shut out the Cincinnatis and Pittsburg defeated Philadelphia. St. Louis won the first game from the Bostons and tied them in the second. CHICAGO, 4: NEW YORK, 3-FIRST GAMS.

The New Yorks lost a game yesterday to the Chicagos—one of those never-cantell-games, which they looked to have won and put away among their meagre supply of victories—and in a second encounter shut the other side out. Things were sailing along smoothly for the New Yorks in the first game up to the sixth inning, and everything looked rosy. The Chicagos had not made a hit off Taylor and the New Yorks were two runs ahead. It was a lovely outlook But in the sixth a change came o'er the locals dreams. The Chicagos suddenly began to gauge Taylor and the epidemic of wild throwing, which had afflicted the visitors earlier in the game, veered New York's way. Four singles were made and McGraw and Smith made wild throws and the errors dovetailed in with the hits just right to lose the game. The Chicagos were all tangled up in the first three innings but they steadled and won out pluckily. The New Yorks had the bases filled in the eighth, but Lauder could not get the bail past Tinker. Browne, who is coming fast as a valuable man, made a fine catch of a fly while propped up against the left-field ramparts.

Again in the second game the New Yorks lost no time in reaping a harvest of runs, but this time they did not have a relapse and the Chicagos could do so little with Mathewson that they were not dangerous. Mathewson, incidentally, had a calm, deliberate and impressive way of fleiding grounders, that proclaimed a great player. He also made a home run—further evidence of greatness. The New Yorks did not bat hard, on the whole, but while they were sowing a few sentering hits the Chicagos were sowing errors and onses on balls, hence New York's winning crop of runs. BROOKLYN. 5; CINCINNATI, 0. There was a marked pitching contrast at Washington Park yesterday. Donovan of Brooklyn and Poole of Cincinnati furnished the contrast. Donovan pitched a fine game for the home team, and the whitewash that he and his fellows gave the Reds was nothing more than was to be expected under the circumstances. The Cincinnatis could not do anything with his twirling, and barring hitting a batsman his control was faultless. Poole, on the other hand, was very much to the bad. He was off, so much so that his team would have fared better had he been off the slab. Hanlon uncarthed another carcher, Riter of Binghamton, and he caught a first-class game.

A BOSTON CUP DEFENDER.

Starling Burgess to Design and a Syndicate to Furnish the Money.

Another Boston yacht is to be built this winter for the defence of the America's Cup against Sir Thomas Lipton's third attack.
W. Starling Burgess, who has designed some of the fastest freaks that have raced in Eastern waters this year, is to design the new craft. and a syndicate of yachtsmen are to furnish the money for her construction. W. Starling Burgess is a son of the late Edward Burgess and Eastern yachtsmen regard him as one and Eastern yachtsmen regard him as one of the most promising designers in the country. The plans for the new boat have been prepared and, according to boat have been prepared and, according to the Boston Herald, she will be different from anything that has yet been seen in the 90-foot class.

The Herald says:

"The men who are behind the scheme for the building of a Boston Cup defended

"The men who are behind the scheme for the building of a Boston Cup defended from his designs are all practical and experienced yachtsmen. After discussing several designs, and having decided upon the type of boat, whica in their opinion would be fastest. Designer Burgess went to work to get out the lines and the boat he has turned out on the draughting board has met with approval. Now strenuous efforts will be made to raise the necessary funds for building and running her.

"If enough money is not raised by private subscription, which it is thought will be done without much difficulty, it has been proposed to open a public subscription, which would be sure to meet with a ready response, so that Boston can have a Burgessboat in the trials next season and meet the best New York defender in the contest for the choice of a delender to meet the Shamrock III.

"All of the young designer's boats have been fast this season and are an advance over his former boats and the cracks of last year. His Little Haste, in the 21-foot classiand in many races has beaten the time of the 23-footers over the same course.

"Mr. Burgess has shown wonderful progress and ingenuity in design and construction. His Gutlook, which successfully defended the Quincy cup, is a sample of his skill.

"The introduction of the bridgework construction in a boat of the pronounced scow type, with tremendous long overhangs was his idea, and its value was proved in the racing. After several severe tests, the Outlook is still ready for Quincy Cup defence work. It did not go to pleces, as many yachtsmen firmly believed."
